There are local housing drop-in sessions around Leeds that you can go to

Location	Day	Open times
Armley One Stop Centre	Monday	10am to 4pm
Morley Hub	Monday	9am to 4pm
St George's Centre	Tuesday	9am to 4pm
Dewsbury Road Hub	Wednesday	10am to 4pm
Reginald Centre Hub	Thursday	9am to 4pm
Compton Centre Hub	Thursday	9am to 4pm
North Seacroft One Stop Centre	Friday	9am to 4pm

What happens next?

A member of staff will speak to you and arrange a full housing assessment. This is to agree your personal housing plan and the session will be between 1 and 2 hours.

You will then be sent a letter letting you know if you're eligible for housing support. This can take up to 56 days, but they can usually let you know sooner than this.

If there is any information you think is incorrect or have any requests for new factsheets, please let us know by giving feedback using the contact details below.

This guide is one of many produced by Advonet, an independent advocacy charity in Leeds. It aims to help you speak up about your rights. This is called self-advocacy.
