

Person Specification—LEEP1 Mentor Consultant (LEEP1 Inclusion For Employment (LIFE))

This document will tell you what you need to apply for the role of LEEP1 Mentor Consultant.

Essential means that you need to have that skill or experience to apply.

Desirable means that it would be good if you did have that skill or experience but you can still apply if you do not.

Experience is something you have done or are.

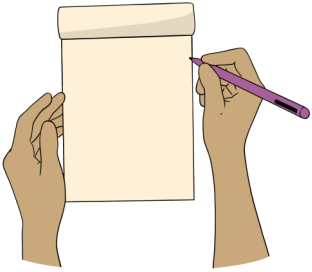

Qualifications are any training or courses you have done.

Knowledge is things you know about.

Skills are things about you.

Experience

Essential

Lived experience of a learning disability

Experience of paid employment or experience of looking for work for a long time

Being a member or volunteer of The Advonet Group

The Advonet
Group

Providing Independent Advocacy

Desired

Experience of mentoring

Delivering training

Co-production work

Leading groups

Doing interviews

Qualifications

Essential

None

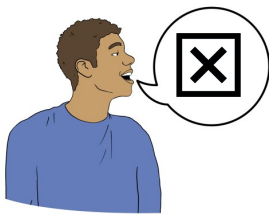

Desired

Leadership training

Knowledge

Essential

Understand issues faced by people with learning disabilities around employment

Desired

How a focus group works

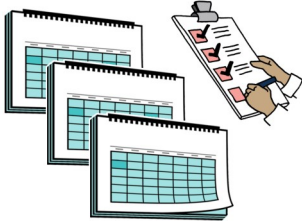

Employment rights

Skills

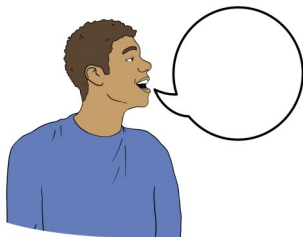

Essential

Reliable

Supportive

Good at approaching people and communicating

Desired

Public speaking

Using IT and social media